Survive

You cannot understand a single word I say
But you manage to hear every word anyway
Your eyes they always seem to be fixed on me
But not for love but for misery

You say nothing yet still I hear
I am the thing that you most fear
I cause the pain deep in your heart
Oh, how I love to tear your world apart
Well, I feel your pain and I survive
And I survive

I see your anger, I can hardly wait
How it feels so good to cause you such hate
Tried to ignore me, thought I'd go away
But I'm back for good, I'm here to stay

You say nothing yet still I hear
I am the thing that you most fear
I cause the pain deep in your heart
Oh, how I love to tear your world apart
Well, I feel your pain and I survive

You say nothing yet still I hear
I am the thing that you most fear
I cause the pain deep in your heart
Oh, how I love to tear your world apart
Well, I feel your pain and I survive
And I survive, survive

You thought that you could get the best of me
To put me down it seemed so easily
I take such pride in the work I do
You hoped I'd fail but I'm not like you

You say nothing yet still I hear
I am the thing that you most fear
I cause the pain deep in your heart
Oh, how I love to tear your world apart
Well, I feel your pain and I survive

I feel your pain so I survive
