Lost it, I'm caught in a rage
Like an animal locked in a cage
Now I look into the barrel of a gauge, boom

Made me into a fool
Experimented on me like an animal
Turned me into a common criminal

I lost it, but I gotta get with it
Motherfucker, now you're gonna get it
I ain't one that'll sit and forget it

I got into a war I can never win
Where the nightmare never ever ends
And I don't know what I'm saying

Got into a war with reality
That motherfucker it was waiting for me
And I lost again, I lost again

Took my dreams, ya left them there shattered
Took my hopes, ya dug 'em and they splattered
Took my mind like it didn't even matter

Entered a world that I didn't belong
Thought I could take it but I stayed too long
Thought I could handle it, boy was I wrong

Fighting a war I can never win
Where the nightmare never ever ends
And I'm, not into playing

Got into a war with reality
That motherfucker it was waiting for me
And I lost again

Lost it, lost again
Lost it, lost again
Lost it, lost again, lost it

I went to war with reality
That motherfucker he was waiting for me

I never thought that this could happen to me, damn

Down so low that I can't no higher
When I was burning you put wood on the fire
You ain't nothing but a goddamn liar, liar

Took all my strength now I tremble and drop
You got to be down to go over the top
Oh, God can't You make the laughter stop?

Died in a war I could never win
Where the nightmare never ever ends
And I lost again

Got into a war with reality
That motherfucker it was waiting for me
And I lost again

Liar, killer, lost again, I lost it
Murder, killer, hell I lost again

No no, cleanse me from your evil
You broke your promises
What did I do to deserve this?

No one to save me from it
Oh, Lord please have mercy
And now I've come to see it

Something's gone wrong with me
I guess [Incomprehensible] lost in reality
What's that gone wrong with me
I guess I [Incomprehensible] in reality
Hell I lost again

Sure it ain't easy, hell I lost again
