How can you love someone
If you think that you're no one

When you mistreat yourself
And think it's all you deserve
'Cause it's so hard to care
Is this love or is it loneliness

How can you demand respect
When you have no respect

When you abuse your body
Never mind your mind
When you're your own worst victim
There'll be no love, just loneliness

Why do you force a smile
When you know all the while

That you're burning inside
But don't want no one to know
The hell that you're in
Is love just a loneliness

How can you sleep at night
When you know it's not alright?

When you wake up in the morning
Nothing has changed
If you do nothing about it
Love becomes loneliness

Love Vs loneliness
Love Vs loneliness
Love Vs loneliness
Love Vs loneliness

And when you're down and you think you need something else
It's just to hard to resist
But what you grab, sure ain't what you needed
That's not love, it's loneliness

And when you're lonely and think you need someone else
The plot takes a painful twist
There ain't no one that can make you feel like someone
Only you can kill the loneliness

How can you be confident
When you're all wrong with it

When you know what you're doing
And you're doing it wrong
It's no misunderstanding
This ain't love, this is loneliness

How can you love someone
If you think that you're the one
