When my heart is burn

I can't stop tears of heart

Like the rain from the sky falling down to the earth

I'm not try to give up and try to stand up

Running out from the dark

Keep away from this truth.

Reff:

Now I'm just like a sun never shine in the night

If I could change my destiny

Maybe I'll never make you hurt

Maybe I'm a loser, never being in your live

Yeah, I'm just a loser

Couldn't make anything better
