"New Girl"

I can't wait to tell you about her all about my new girl I can't wait for you to hear me shout it.
all about my new girl
when we were together you tried to break us up you always did your best at keeping us apart now your dead and i've got a new thing going I can't wait to see your face when you and your friends show up Something makes you think that you're some kinda winner do you wanna get married and cook somebody's dinner?
You're making fun of me cause i'm young and go no money i've got no time for school books cause i've got no time to study
