I take a look around I don't like what I see
A bunch of people who don't know shit about UNITY
I see right through your skin, You say you see through mine
The please explain to me why we fight all the time
I can't take it anymore, this is bothering me
Got people killing each other
Why does this have to be?
It's a bomb with a short fuse
And I know it seems like no use
The tension's building a reaction
This is a call to action
SOS we need help....
Man's inhumanity towards another man
It's man's insanity and ignorance again
And now the time has come to stop what's going on The hatred's build up, exploding like a bomb!
