Didn't count the many ways I was falling
But there must've been quite a few
On my way down I hit the floor
And then I fell right through

Well, they hand me the brick for your window
Oh how gently it floats
And the glass shatters like poetry
Though I didn't mean the rock the boat

Shame you never worry about me
Shame you never worry
Shame you never worry about me
Shame you never worry

We're gonna love you til you lose the flavour
So never think I really care
Sky scrapers scrape for a reason
Call on me, I'll be there

So I forgive you to the point of saying:
"I'll be around when you die"
There, I said it, are you happy?
Now take this the wrong way

Shame you never worry about me
Shame you never worry
Shame you never worry about me
Shame you never worry

Crawl to me honey
Crawl to me honey
What you gonna do now with all of your money?
Crawl to me honey
Crawl to me honey
What you gonna do now with all of your money?

Shame you never worry about me
(Crawl to me honey, crawl to me honey)
Shame you never worry
(What you gonna do now with all of your money?)

Shame you never worry about me
(Crawl to me honey, crawl to me honey)
Shame you never worry
(What you gonna do now with all of your money?)
It's a shame...

Well I've sure got some slow days coming
So I'd better not walk too fast
The sunset is here, it's covered in red
Let's hope it lasts
