"Talking In The Dark"

Visit "Talking In The Dark" on MotoLyrics.com

There's no sun, relax at night.
You don't have to talk, it's alright.
Remember when the sky was dim ?
You'd parade and I would swim...I miss talking in the dark with you.

Have no fear, I'm always near.
I've been mumbling to myself for years.
Remember when those days were slow,
shop around but don't let go...I miss talking in the dark
with you.

And every single winter we just freeze away,
we're like sumo wrestlers on a violent ballet.
And in summer, all the girls sing,
in summer, all the girls sing : "Shalalalaa !"

No blue moon, no bluebird song,
would ever make me do you wrong.
So don't be down, just have a rest, everyone round you is blessed...I miss talking in the dark with you.

Don't be shy and have a run.
How does it feel to have some fun ?
Remember when those nights went slow,
shop around but don't let go...I miss talking in the dark
with you.

And every single winter we just freeze away,
we're like sumo wrestlers on a violent ballet.
And in summer, all the girls sing,
in summer, all the girls sing : "Shalalalaa !"

(continue "Shalala" until eternity)
