

Sum 41 "King Of Contradiction"

I've dethroned the King of Contradiction
Or were you just a jester all along? A simple pawn
Don't you know you can't count your tears
Like your money running down the drain
(The drain!)

You don't need to pray for me 'cause I'm not the one to blame
I can't wait to see you going down in flames
Could it be? No, not what we became
You lost the human race
(Race!)

I hope you burn like a cigarette in ashes
Your head comes down and crashes
Your throat pours blood from slashes
And I hope you never forget, like a tattoo of regret this time
(This time!)

You don't need to pray for me 'cause I'm not the one to
blame
I can't wait to see you going down in flames
Could it be? No, not what we became
You lost the human race

Now you're replaced now
Nice to know you
Now you're time is up so!

Just drop dead!
