perfection is my direction even if thats all i had its not like i need no correction, i just know that life's not so bad picture this, everyday, kids that just can't find a way, stuck in this erect,

can't find hope for better days its our 2 generation, our child of frustration

In The Last 30 Years teenage suicide has increased 300% in North America & is the 2nd major continent attached to Canada.

its not like i need no correction,
i just know that life's not so bad

when will all my problems disappear? am i just going crazy from the fear? oh why am i going far past the break the bridge is like a way, and i still can't think straight.

perfection is my direction
its not like i need no correction,
i just know that life's not so bad

i met my destination whats life to complain about?
all these aggrivations building till the sea fall out im running by, no lie, when every time i lie, (don't tell me without a doubt this new found luck has all run out [repeat])

its not like i need no correction,
i just know that life's not so bad
