Yeeeeaaah!

I guess I don't have to feel your deadbeat offering,
With a foot in the gutter, and the older in the grave
You've cursed your silver spoon, so black, so die.

[Chorus]

And what can I say?
Guess it's obvious you would end up this way
When you live amongst the dead.

The best of luck
As the one and only resident scumfuck
A victim or just a tragedy?

I hear you talk,
But I don't hear you speak
You don't make sense,
Your mind is incomplete.

I can't believe all the things that you say

You just can't get enough
We'll all be waiting here just for the day
That your time is up.

[Chorus]

And what can I say?
Guess it's obvious you would end up this way
When you live amongst the dead.

The best of luck
As the one and only resident scumfuck
A victim or just a tragedy?

All that I need is time for me to breathe
Dream, little dreams that only I believe
Now that I see beyond the light,
I'm gonna be, I'll be alright.
