The year is 3468,
And they're about to eliminate,
Life as we all know it on Planet Earth,
They're products of a new regime,
With manufactured designer genes,
Scientifically enhanced at birth,

Superior in almost every way,
With telepathic DNA,
They'll hunt you down there's nowhere you can hide,
Created for the killing machine,
Proto-nuclear human beings,
We must help to prevent this genocide,

Have we created, our own demise,
Their out to kill, using their minds,
You'll feel the chill, run down your spine,
Tell me, since when has being human been a crime?,
Gonna hunt you, gonna get you, Your time is up,

It seems the time has come for the human race,
Gone for good, vanishing without a trace,
Cerebroids are silencing their cries,
The clones are trying to assist evolution,
Through state sponsored executions,
Will nothing stop this evil enterprise?,

Until the day a leader emerges,
With mind powers like electric surges,
He'll give us hope, he'll teach us how to fight,
A clash of arms with the enemy,
And outcome no can forsee,
Let's pray they can't withstand our human right,

Have we created, our own demise,
Their out to kill, using their minds,
You'll feel the chill, run down your spine,
Tell me, since when has being human been a crime?,
Gonna hunt you, gonna get you, Your time is up,

Have we created, our own demise,
Their out to kill, using their minds,

You'll feel the chill, run down your spine,
Tell me, since when has being human been a crime?,
Gonna hunt you, gonna get you, Your time is up,
