Can't step in the way
Head first in your love and dismay
It's like beating the dead (I guess that's how it is)
I can't stop going out of my head
Whatever this could be I'll never know
I never said it'd be the end all to be all

I hate you today
I can't find a way
Don't drag me down now

Goodbye
I've had enough frustration
I won't get stuck
Goodbye
This dead-end situation
Is just not worth my time

It's no better today
I never thought it would end up this way
You've got something to say (You've got something to say)
Don't wanna hear it if it gets in my way

All this confusion, wondering, so overwhelmed
All disillusion seems so clear
Can't find conclusion, disappointing evolution
Not all things are what they appear

So what's the point of this HELL!
I know you too well
We're running backwards

Goodbye
I've had enough frustration
I won't get stuck
Goodbye
This dead-end situation
Is just not worth my time

All waiting, so frustrating
I'm so sick of...

All this tension not to mention
I'm so sick of...

Can't take it
Ya won't make it
Just save yourself this struggle
Can't do this
Fight for yourself 'cause I'm just fine

You speak for all of us
When you can't be heard
I'll bet you haven't listened
To not one word
You speak for all of us
When you can't be heard

Goodbye
I won't get stuck
Goodbye
This dead-end situation
Is just not worth my time

All waiting, so frustrating
I'm so sick of...
I'm so sick of...
Sick of you
