"Those Who Will Not Falter"

Standing atop a mountain
Of frustration that crumbles
From the weight of those who will not falter
Or cower, those who can't be deterred
By fear or depression
My brothers and sisters in this dream
I will live this dream
I remain unafraid
Cry out, not in desperation
But in joy, knowing you are not alone
Empowered, alive
Capable of giving more of yourself
To your dreams
Prepared to bring this world to it's knees
Chorus
Your hand in mine
My strength is yours
If together we stand
How can we fall
I am not alone
I am not afraid
I am not alone
I am not afraid
