"A Lonely Chord"

I never thought it matter,
Never thought it mattered so much to me exactly where
I put my feet.
I was wrong. I drink a strong cup of coffee.
A long time ago, I had a home.
A corner where I could be alone.

[Chorus]
So goodbye my solid ground.
I'm an engine, I won't break down.
A lonely chord without a song, searching for an orchestration where I belong.

Where will I hang up my raincoat when this day is over?
Like a leaf without a tree,
Nothing to cover over me.
I'm like a character from a story, I don't exist.

[Chorus]

I owe a lot to these kids who are like family.
They've helped me out with their endless generosity.

[Chorus x 2]
