I think about what's going on, then I stop thinking about it
I had a reason to believe that something's wrong...
It was only you for so long
The people ask but i don't hear
What's the question anyway?
I collect a fuzzy cloud of memories to sell to people who care
Not worth the time or energy
Take us for granted, you'll get what you ask for Go! And don't look back at what you know
Now it's over and this chapter has been closed
The slate is blank, the day is new
The past is over, future's in view
I take my strength and apply it here
Obsolescence: that was what you feared
Don't look back at what you know
It's over and this chapter has been closed
When I open my eyes, you'll be gone
For you it's over, for me it's just begun
Let's not dwell on the past
My memory is fading now
I don't know you
