By the time we're naked
You faked it
To hurry this along

Inside you
It binds you
And nature's never wrong

Rely on
My triumph
I sing the Viking song

I am man

The sun is rising
On new horizons

You will see my crest approach, I've sailed across the sea
All that I've left behind is but a memory

I've called to Valhalla
Now Valhalla calls to me

The message
Impresses
You'll keep good company

They know it
You show it
And they respect my seed

It binds you
Inside you
There grows another me

I am man
