Hard woman !
She wanted everything,
yes she is

And I give her laughter, she wanted diamonds
She was unfaithfull, treated my cruelly
Where is the mercy, where is the love?

You see,
passion has a funny way
Of burning down and running low suddenly it goes out
And you wonder where does it go

She's a hard woman to please
I've thought about letting her know
She's a hard woman to leave,
I've thought about letting her go

she's a tough cookie
Hard lady
I've got to say goodbye

I gave her laughter, she wanted diamonds
I was romantic, treated my cruelly
Where is the mercy?

The power of love is burning down
A heart wound feel the glow don't give her the chance to turn bitter I'm dealing the final blow

She's a hard woman to please
And I've thought about letting her know
She's a hard Woman to leave,
I've thought about letting her go

She's a tough cookie, Rough lady
I've got to say goodbye
How can I say goodbye to my baby?
So long honey

----- Instrumental -----

(Oh my baby ?)

I'm alone; at last something inside of me knows
I could, loved in vain For a thousand years
I have to let her go
And time go so fast
a new love starts so slow
I could, we don't love for thousand years
I have to let her go She's a she's a Hard woman to please, yes she is
she's a Hard woman to please, yes she is oh yes she is

mmm

(How can I say goodbye to my baby?)
-So long honey
(How can I say goodbye...)
-to my little girl
(How can I say goodbye to my baby?)
-she sure knows how make me cry
(How can I say goodbye to my baby?)
mmm she sure know how make me cry cry cry cry cry
How can I say goodbye to my baby?
OH my little bird
How can I say goodbye to my baby?
so long, so long, so long honey
