In Satan's Embrace

Sower of fear, bringer of grief, is he...
We bow our heads before you, o' father
Evoker of hate, master of death, is he...
We grant our lives before you, o' father

Eternally will our souls belong to Satan

Satan... We yearn for your Infernal power
We can feel your mighty grasp bind our souls
Satan... Lead us to final victory
We can sense that the great day of wrath is coming
Father... Come forth and claim what's yours
You are the true ruler of the earth
Father... Take our lives, embrace our souls
We can see your throne now ever clearly...

Eternally will our lives be devoted to Satan

As the world will be throned to perpetual darkness
We praise your I'd with martyrs' blood in our hands
What once were, will be ever after...
We are the true servants of Satan!
