Nothing's ever good enough
You take it all for granted
You make it look so easy

How am I supposed to feel?
It's easy just to hate you
But I wouldn't hate to be like you

What if you start to make a sound?
What if you start to lose it?

You are one of the lucky ones
You make it look so easy
You don't see what we've become
[X2]

You think you stand out in the crowd
You think you're better than me
You seem to think that way
Do you even want to change?
Is there nothing you can do?
Or do you even care?

What if you start to make a sound
What if you start to lose it

You are one of the lucky ones
You make it look so easy
You don't see what we've become
[X2]

You don't see what we've become
No you don't see what we've become
You don't see what we've become
You make it look so easy

You are one of the lucky ones
You make it look so easy
You don't see what we've become
[X2]

You don't see what we've become
