My opinion only matters when it suits you best
This advice to you is pointless, just like all the rest
Why I even bother, I guess that I'll never know
You blame me every time like somehow I should know

[Pre-Chorus]

What's that got to do with me?
You just let it all play out
Just you decide

[Chorus]

What do you want from me?
What is the barrier between
And are you sure you're satisfied
You need to find another way
'Cause I tried, I tried
You know that I tried

You say you'll learn from me but that is just a lie
You say you work real hard but I've never seen you try
Why I even bother, I guess that I'll never know
You blame me every time like somehow I should know

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]

What do you want from me?
What's the barrier between
What do you want from me?
Are you sure you're satisfied
What do you want from me?
You'll have to find another way
What do you want from me?
'Cause I've tried

What's the barrier between
Are you sure you're satisfied
You'll have to find another way
'Cause I've tried and tried

[Chorus]
