This christ is full of sins he can't repent upon his crucifix so innocent he trembles at the thought of nails Digging in his flesh again for he knows... he's just a man still I watch him

BURN in his jesus christ complex BURN within himself BURN in his jesus christ complex he'll burn ETERNALUX In daylight this saint he lies and mourns within his house of worship, crown of thorns release is never easy

From his self inflicted pity and my hate becomes more pretty as I'm scorned

Repeat chorus 2xs

VIRGIN MARY I feel the need to WHORE myself again I am, I can

We KISS, I can't RESIST everything about you is so... everything about US is so SICK S8N-666 why are we so SICK? why are you so SICK? why am I so SICK? we are so perfect I am not perfect... I'M SICK

In darkness this sinner will confess trapped inside his own self righteousness faithless as he sleeps he'll Wake and won't remember anything but everything has changed... remained the same

Repeat chorus 2xs

You burn for me I'll burn for you you'll burn for me eternally together we will BURN...I told the truth and Truth is eternal
