Her mouth is sweet her tongue is sugar coated but i can see those rotten teeth she thought i wouldn't notice

Waste my time and read her mind but i'm not kind i'm honest my mouth is cruel and deep inside... she doesn't Want it she keeps it hidden underneath her clean complexion i kiss her lips and she fills me with her infection

Eyes of a snake, she loves to take with no one there to witness she scars me red, fucks with my head can't let Her spread her sickness sick, she's so sick

I am the pretty hate that makes you sick inside your world i am the scar that will not heal that's passed from Girl to girl i am that little bitch you fear cuz i am not afraid i'm everything that is real while you know That you're just a fake a fake and you take, and you take, and you...

She wears her mask and i don't ask about her past i smile and all the time she struggles for control while in Denial identity crisis will keep her looking innocent self righteousness won't hide her dirty... deceiving Intent she's lost inside herself so pretty in her little mirror but i can see her ugliness and it's becoming Clearer blood and guts i'm being fucked while she's a friend to me reality is lost

I'm drowning in my enemy and i can't breath no i can't breath i can't breath no i can't...

I am the pretty hate that makes you sick inside your world i am the scar that will not heal that is passed From girl to girl i am that little bitch you fear cuz i am not afraid i'm everything that's real and no, i will Not break

Wicked words tangled webs i can't pretend that i'm dead spoonfed her sickness candy covered lies so fuckin

Twisted

Don't tell me that i can't be myself that i can't be... don't tell me that i can't be myself cuz you can't Be... don't tell me that i can't be myself that i can't be don't tell me that i can't be myself cuz you can't

Be... me

I am the pretty hate that makes you sick inside your
From girl to girl i am that little bitch you fear but you will never tell i'm everything that is I'll and all...
All is not well. all is not well well
