I she'd tears writing this song...
That's the last time I she'd tears...
I guess not all fairy tales come with a happy ending.
So lemme tell you how it is, listen up...

[Intro/Chorus:]

I didn't want it like this, but it's how it goes.
Sometimes every love eventually takes it's own roads.
We tried to work it out, but girl we failed.
A waste of a time, just another fairy tale.
I didn't want it like this, but it's how it goes.
Sometimes every love eventually takes it's own roads.
We tried to work it our, but girl we failed.
A waste of a time, just another fairy tale.

Once upon a time there was a boy and a girl.
They Shared so much love they can't ditch
She brought the joy to his world...
They said they'd never leave each other,
Thought that this road was for sure
But little did they know, they was about to make a swurve.
Those three little words were said too soon.
See things aren't the way they used to be.
Now they gotta worry, time ain't even worthy.
Tryna work it out, but clocked out a lil too early...
So she's sittin' at home and contemplating mistakes.
And he's lying all alone trying not to stay awake
Cause he only meets her in his dreams
When he goes to sleep
And she's drowning in their pain
Cause her eyes always weep.
So keep the book shut and don't let it unfold.
Or turn to another chapter for a different story to be told.
Cause all good things must come to a DISASTER.
Here's the reason why they're livin' sadly ever after.

[Chorus:]

I didn't want it like this, but it's how it goes.
Sometimes every love eventually takes it's own roads.

We tried to work it out, but girl we failed...
A waste of a time, just another fairy tale.
I didn't want it like ths, but it's how it goes.
Sometimes every love eventually takes it's own roads.
We tried to work it out, but gitl we failed...
A waste of a time, just another fairy tale.

You took me for granted girl, and now I'm gone.
I gotta let it go, girl, I'm movin' on, movin' on.
I'll admit you swept me off my feet.
But I fell in now...
I'll learn to get back up.
I'm a strong dude with a lotta pride
You played me, had other boys on the side
But I ain't gonna trip, I'm a just let it slide
I'm independent. I don't need you to ride.
You was in the front, but now u in the back.
We was in love and it felt just like that.
And I took the hit, my heart was crying.
All the things you said to me, you was just lying.
I tried and tried but now I'm done trying.
When all you do is just keep on denying,
A fairy tale just a waste of my time.
Days gone by girl, you faded from my mind.

[Chorus:]

I didn't want it like this, but it's how it goes.
Sometimes every love eventually takes it's own roads.
We tried to work it out, but girl we failed...
A waste of a time, just another fairy tale.
I didn't want it like ths, but it's how it goes.
Sometimes every love eventually takes it's own roads.
We tried to work it out, but gitl we failed...
A waste of a time, just another fairy tale.

Everything we worked for it all went down the drain.
I'm sayin this to you cause I can't take the pain.
I shoulda seen this comin rite from the start.
You had it in your hands...
But you tore my heart apart.
I'm standing here and I can't look at your face.
So take the memories I packed it in a suitcase.
My eyes are blurry girl, you mad it hard to see.
You wanna play the game, this game is over with me.
I used to be a fool over and over again.
But not this time, I'm callin' it an end.
The truth hurts but it has to come out.
So go that way and I'll take this route.
And that's the reason why I wrote this song...
You tried to hide it, but I knew it all along.
I got my boys there tellin' me to be strong.

I'm done askin' why oh why you ever do me wrong.

[Chorus:]

I didn't want it like this, but it's how it goes.
Sometimes every love eventually takes it's own roads.
We tried to work it out, but girl we failed...
A waste of a time, just another fairy tale.
I didn't want it like ths, but it's how it goes.
Sometimes every love eventually takes it's own roads.
We tried to work it out, but gitl we failed...
A waste of a time, just another fairy tale.

They say, when you love something,
Let it go... and it comes back to you.
And it's truly yours, right?
Well, you know what?
It's happened 1 too many times.
And uhh... needless to say...
It ain't workin' out baby.
So Long...
