I don't blame you for walking away

You'll be better, better off someday

If I had, girl, something good to say

Don't you think, by now, I would have found a way?

Chorus:

Baby, I won't forget you

Baby, I never think I could

I was reckless leading you to believe

You were careless when you fell for me

I count shadows here in the dark

When these clouds just don't want to part

If the Lord would show me some light

Then I just might get out of here alive

Baby, I won't forget you

Baby, I never think I could

I was reckless leading you to believe

You were careless when you fell for me

Bridge:

Minds may speak what hearts may never hear

Some hands need you wipe away the tears

Baby, I won't forget you

Baby, I kinda wish I could

I was reckless leading you to believe

You were careless when you fell for me

Yeah, you were careless when you fell for me
