My baby says we look so good together
So why do things turn ugly when we're out
I always end up running for some shelter
Some pick me up for when she puts me down
We were fighting winters along the seaside
Wishing that our paths had never crossed
You think you can hide me from the moonlight
But I'll escape before the gates get locked

CHORUS

I don't have to follow you down
No I don't have to follow you down
I don't have to follow you, down
Girl you look so happy in the sunlight
You start changing as the daylight fades
Sometimes I stop and wonder what I'm doing
I always stop and wonder why I stay

BRIDGE

You're calling my name as I'm walking out the door
It sounds the same just like every time before, hey!
