We said our goodbyes, you're on with your life
Well I had to go away for a while
But each night I pray, I'll find you someday

You may be holding on
Or you may be long gone

We've seen some miles, sunny days and sleepless nights
Troubles and trials, angry words and endless fights
And each night I pray, that I'll find you someday

You may be holding on
Or you may be long gone

I wished you well, you well on your way
I never looked back, there was nothing to say
Still each night I pray, that I'll find you someday

And you may be holding on
Or you may be long gone
You may be holding on
Or you may be long gone
