Everything you ever said to me
Was the biggest lie that you said in your history
So now I'm lying on my back looking up at the stars Counting every one hoping that one would fall
So I could make a little wish that you'd say that you'd be there
The taste of your lips is what kept me strong

(Chorus)

Trying to get over this Is probably something that I won't miss
I know that your not here standing by my side One more night with you would make a world of difference

As I walk you to your door you wont ask me inside you just turned around and waved me goodbye Look where we were and where we are right now and please tell me that it's going so wrong Maybe we could talk but you wont answer your phone So I'll just on rehearsing my speech over again Pucker up baby and kiss me goodbye so maybe we could fly up in the sky

(Repeat Chorus)

Let's spend tonight talking about things that couples always do I hate to admit that I'm hooked on you but Every little phrase of your's is stuck in my head
