Driving out, we're heading somewhere new
Top down, we're onto something
Straight roads and skies are crystal blue
Don't know where we're going

'Cos you and me were meant to be
Were meant to be together
But you and I will never be the same

This is our way, this is our life
Just one chance to make it right
This is our dream, and all I see
Is a place for you and me
If you need somebody, I'm somebody
For you to hold on tight
This is our life, but we're just worlds apart

Walking down a dead end street at night
Head down, I'm going under
We tried and failed to make it right
Don't know where we're going

'Cos you and me were meant to be
Were meant to be together
But you and I were just too much the same

This is our way, this is our life
Just one chance to make it right
This is our dream, and all I see
Is a place for you and me
If you need somebody, I'm somebody
For you to hold on tight
This is our life, but we're just worlds apart

We're just world's apart

Running round in circles with these voices in my head
Wishing I was someone else instead

This is our way, this is our life
Just one chance to make it right

This is our way, this is our life
Just one chance to make it right
This is our dream, and all I see
Is a place for you and me
If you need somebody, I'm somebody
For you to hold on tight
This is our life, but we're just worlds apart
