I'm not...I'm not a Victim of circumstance...
And I won't live by your schemes.

Satan get off of my back...
I've had enough of you...
I've had enough of you...
I've had enough...
Satan get off of my back...
I've had enough of you...
I've had enough of you...
Liar, shut up, shut up, Liar...
I've had enough of you...
Enough of you...

This situation don't look good, and I don't have to put up with you.
Your trying to pull me down but God's going to pull me through...
He's going to pull me through...
