You've become absent from my soul.
I'm here just to rot away.
I need to see your face again.
I long for your warm embrace.
You feel so far away.
It's like I've never even known, like we've never even touched.
What have I done to us.
I wish I were in the shadow of your hands once more.

I want to be Sanctified in your eyes, Justified.
I want to be purified in your eyes, Sanctified.

I'm lifeless, I'm Empty, without your spirit to fill.
I'm lost, Lost purpose, God show your self.
