I can't stand this hate, Everybody cutting down one another.

Just because we're not the same race,
Doesn't mean we have to hate each other.

This oppresion is driving me insane
(woh oh oh) In your fight there's nothing to gain.
Why can't we all just get along.
You were raised to believe this way.
(woh oh oh) That doesn't make it okay.
Why can't we all just get along.

Stop the Hate!

We all have a heart to break.
If we can just understand one another.
From the same God we're all made.
We're all people we're all worth the same.

Stop the Hate!
