[Sean sings:]

I can't get off
Just to get back on
I made this place
Now I don't belong

I can't be followed around
I can't be lead
I can't remember how that rope
Got around my neck

[Zack sings:]

Well I'll give up
If you give in
There ain't not destiny
Because the one I got
I don't believe in

So get me help
Before I crack
Or better yet
Let me sling this weight right off my back

So get your problems off of me
Because I ain't half of what I could be

[Both sing:]

Without your weight
Life could be
So much lighter

[Zack sings:]

Get your problems off of me
Because I ain't half of what I could be

[Both sing:]

Without your weight
Life could be
So much lighter

[Sean sings:]

I've given birth to motion

And I'll kill it if it moves
I'm feeling so divine
The truth is mine to bend

So I'll make it look like you
It feels so good to lie

[Zack sings:]
Well I'll give up
Everything
Go ahead take it all
And leave me here alone with nothing

Because what I got
It's all for me
I won't surrender so
Cut your losses and set me free

So get your problems off of me
Because I ain't half of what I could be

[Both sing:]
Without your weight
Life could be
So much lighter

[Zack sings:]
Get your problems off of me
Because I ain't half of what I could be

[Both sing:]
Without your weight
Life could be light

[kick ass solo]

[Zack sings:]
Take your problems
And take your pain
And take your emptiness
And pray for rain
And let it wash away
While the sun
Sheds its light on
The dead and ethical
