There's a weird flash in your eyes
Waiting for what follows

Under your spiky disguise
Stars, they guide us to dreamland
Shadows of rebellions, lies in the sand

I reach out for a helping hand

Loosing your wings

Flying up to the burning sky

Crash to the ground
You're an angel

Angel without wings

Down in the past, loosing control
Come with me to this hail
Neverending tale from dreamland
Forgive these shadows from my hand
Storm it rages on and on

Bitter side of my past

I reach out for helping hand
