Two beautiful wings, beautiful sounds of the screams

Can you hear them

Two pearly fangs, beautiful eyes that shine through the ages

Just look around, you'll feel the cold sweat dropping
But you'll be alright, when you hold the power of killing

Gods Of The Time, they rule all the nights
Hear the whisper of darkness

Below is my heaven, your game is my castle

I'll guard your rest
Just give me one kiss, one kiss and I'll live forever
Make me a god, and we'll be allways together

I am ready, I am ready now

Take me higher, through the fire
Take me through the endless stormy nights
To the fire, of desire

Take me to the beauty of the night.
