

Twilight Guardians "Just Let Me"

Coldness I feel, breaking in to my mind
Silence I hear in darkness I lay

I see you through tears, but I'm floating away
Walls of this world, can't make me stay

Wait for a while, reach out for my hand
Open my eyes, I can't understand

Just let me see

Another morning, another breaking of the dawn
Just let me breath

One tomorrow, then I'll be there when you call

Valley of peace, could it be true
Will of the one, stronger than youth
Icy stairs won't melt by warmth
Where did I loose you, could you open the door
