Dear friends could you gather around
To listen heavenly sound

War has begun, peace is undone
I call you by will of the gods

To show your honour and glory
War has begun, peace is undone

We march through the valley of thunder and rain,
Don't fear what the future might bring
Crack in the sky leads the gods to the game
Defending the land of the kings

Lift up you armour from ground
Power and might you must find
Mercy for none, no light, no sun
Into the fury and pain

We ride through the thunder and rain
Mercy for none, no light, no sun
