"Last Of My Kind"

Visit "Last Of My Kind" on MotoLyrics.com

I am off, off to the world of dreams
Now awake, majestic power reveal
I have come, to take your mind under my will Give me your soul, I'll make you fall down on your knees

Stealing your spirit out from it's nest
Stealing your mind take you from rest.
Gods of our joy and our sorrow
Now hear my call

Last of my kind, bold and divine

In the night, feel the force of our prayers
Call for me darkened lord of our days
In my heart blood boils by the fire
Feel the strength, taste the wine of desire
