In our blood the seeds of terror
Guess I am evil too
Rise from the chaos never to be a God

Something savage ingrained in my veins
I hear the black laughter

These wicked thoughts, they are hellspawned
Heavy burden in our hearts
Bound to the earth that waits for our blood

Something savage ingrained in my veins
I hear the black laughter

Search for grace
From disgraceful days
Life from destruction
Wise men from fools

Search for grace
Life from destruction
Wise men from fools
