

Twilight Guardians "The Wraith"

The shadow is here, the spirit of me
I stalk the sleepless, there's nothing to fear
The lurker in darkness, pale face in the rain
This swinger of curtains just can't be tamed

Don't fear all this darkness 'cos I'm always there
To tuck you in the evening, to caress your hair

I'll hold you to the end of the night
Don't fear the wraith
I'll crown you at the end of your life
Don't fear the wraith

I'll hold you to the end of the night
Don't fear the wraith
I'll crown you at the end of your life
Don't fear the wraith
