I turn myself to meet the stars
On open skies weâre goinâ far
Donât be afraid
I have your heart

So say goodbye
Weâll leave the ground
Weâll ride with the wind
On newborn cloud
Where we donât need
To waste a sound

Inhale the silence through these stars
Inhale the silence through these stars
Devour me emptiness for I am through
Inhale the silence for I am through

Weâll never find the newborn star
Rip down the skies
Theyâve gone so dark
Donât be afraid
You donât have a heart

So say goodbye
Weâll leave the ground
Weâll ride with the wind
On newborn cloud
Where we donât need
To waste a sound

Inhale the silence through these stars
Inhale the silence through these stars
Devour me emptiness for I am through
Inhale the silence for I am through
