So once again we lost the fight, slaved to
The ground we will try to get up
Fearsome power of our time gives us the courage to Stand up and fight
Power of youth wont let us down,
You'll see us slaving you down to the ground
Bloodpainted tears we've seen in our face,
This is the end, we wont take anymore

Slowly turning doors of time,
Will take us in protection
Facing fears, freezing stairs,
But well get through

Sound of our voice is bigger than lies,
Well scream and shout and well never give in
Passage to fame is closer at hand,
Let's get this over with, continue our path
Gods of metal on our side,
Refreshing our souls and refreshing our minds
This final task is at our hand,
Will we continue,
Will we die

Slowly turning doors of time,
Will take us in protection
Facing fears, freezing stairs,
But well get through

Watching our time slip away
We've seen your lies, we've your cries
Again we see you standing so tall
Time is up right now

Watching our time slip away
We've seen your lies, we've your cries
Again we see you standing so tall
Time is up right now
