Clouds fill the sky, cold wind now rise
Eye of the storm is the kingdom of mine
Rise from the north, from darkness of sea
Out from the forest, the kingdom of gods

Hunger for red wine

Lust for you blood
Red drops in your cry

I'll drink them as wine

Wings of the gods, carry my soul
Hell or to heaven, take me home

Riding through fields, through ancient land
Wings of the destruction are guiding my hand
Down from heavens, on steely wings
Ride up from hell, flying like dreams
