I cut my lip on broken bone
And who you are, isn't what you own.

It pierced the skin, it's ripping through
Into my heart because of you.

What is light, where is laughter?
I'm confused and the sky is getting heavy tonight,
We'll never know, you never know tonight, We'll never
know, you never know and,

What is music, where is happiness? result
Please don't let it rain tonight
We'll never know, you never know, I'm over and over and over and over and out.

Step out from the darkness, is this what you came for?
You came for?
I can be your lantern, Is this what you came for?
You came for?

Paranoid heart attacks, is there a reason why you can't relax?
Clean up the blood, it's seeping through
Into my lungs because of you

What is light, where is laughter?
I'm confused and the sky is getting heavy tonight
We'll never know, you never know tonight, We'll never know, you never know and,

What is music where is happiness, result
Please don't let it rain tonight
We'll never know, you never know, I'm over and over and over and out.

Step out from the darkness, is this what you came for?
You came for? I can be your lantern, Is this what you came for?
You came for?

Want it? Well if it's what you wanted.

Take it and hold on to it 'til you own it.
Well if it's what you wanted, want it.
X2

Step out from the darkness, is this what you came for?
You came for? I can be your lantern, Is this what you came for?
You came for?
