Rise from the shadows
Year zero begins
Forgotten are the years we lost
Once again I am king
Rise from the shadows
Beast and man alike
Forged like a sharpened sword
One of terror and might
Where angels come to rot
With their hearts pure as sin
Liars liars
Hungry for more they lick my skin
Crying out to the heavens
Uncaring to the end
Forsaken by the lines of face
Once again history ends
Rise from the shadows
Beast and man alike
Forged like a sharpened sword
One of terror and might
Where angels come to rot
With their hearts pure as sin
Liars liars
Hungry for more they lick my skin
Rise from the shadows
Year zero begins
Forgotten are the years we lost
Once again I am king
Rise from the shadows
Beast and man alike
Forged like a sharpened sword
One of terror and might
Where angels come to rot
With their hearts pure as sin
Liars liars
Hungry for more they lick my skin
