Now join with is in the cry
That guides the spirits of the fallen
Winging across the Rainbow Bridge
To the gates of the gods
At the rising of the sun
A mortal clash of shield and sword
At the setting of the sun
We are victorious on the field
Now join with us
Discolour the soil with blood from the fallen
Remembering us
As we drink in the halls of the gods
At the rising of the sun
A mortal clash of shield and sword
At the setting of the sun
We are victorious on the field
Birds of prey screech
The gray wolf howls
Spears rattle, shield answer shaft
The wandering moon gleams
Under the clouds
Evil deeds will now be done
At the rising of the sun
A mortal clash of shield and sword
At the setting of the sun
We are victorious on the field
Anger - vengeance we seek
We fight - victory to celebrate
Rouse yourself now warriors
The battlefield is ours to take
We march - tall and proud
Triumph - our enemies (beaten)
Celebrate - the power of our force
The end - victorious
