"Broken Soul"

Visit "Broken Soul" on MotoLyrics.com

The beast in me fall on your knees
Don't believe in everything that you see
I run to you from heaven from hell
Eyes of steal, I'm begging you please

Everybody takes the fall
The fall down from it all
I'm hiding myself deep in the mud
Praying for the everlasting flood

My need to be the broken soul
Makes me want to strike you down
So talk to me and come my way
It's like a gift you can't deny

The night the moon I'm blinded by light
See as I'm done what I have become
The sun the moon will take me away
Living my life just for today

Everybody takes the fall
The fall down from it all
I'm hiding myself lost in this world
Praying for a shimmering sky
