Piecing together my thoughts
The way it all began
Times are changing
And my thoughts are lost in space

Birds and dogs

Something very special
Had taken place in my life
I'm thinking about the two of us
And it turned me inside out

Birds and dogs

Now when hours seem longer
I'll be alone with endless sounds and noise
It won't break down, no chance to rest
And it sounds like a thousand birds and dogs

Seasons fading away
There will always be tomorrow
Restless shadows follow my rut
Exploring to my inside

Birds and dogs

Now when hours seem longer...
