The waves are rolling in
I can smell the sea
I feel the drowning sun
All over me

I wanna hold you in my arms
And how you keep you warm
Until the daylight comes
We will be as one

All around the world will you follow me?
All around the world just stay beside me
It won't take a lifetime, don't be afraid
All around the world in one day

All around the world
All around the world

Another starry night
Under desert skies
A never-ending dream
Right before my eyes

I wanna hold you in my arms
And how you keep me warm
Until the daylight comes
We will be as one

All around the world

All around the world will you follow me?
All around the world just stay beside me
It won't take a lifetime, don't be afraid
All around the world in one day

All around the world
All around the world in one day
