Waking up
Your the one i used to know
Where did it stop
Still it feels like letting go
I hear voices deep inside
Now that i have fled from life
Still i wonder why

I believe every word is true
I still believe one day i'll get over you
I see shadows on the wall
Will you catch me when i fall
I had so much to give
I believe

I believe
I see shadows on teh wall
Will you catch me when i fall
I had so much to give
I believe

You and I searching for a place to grow
Out of sight since you left me all alone

I beleive i still believe
I see shadows on the wall
Will you catch me when i fall
I had so much to give
I believe
